

The NJ telephone consumer act eliminating telemarketing calling (especially during evening meals) works very well for us and I think it should NOT be changed or eliminated.